

Tasks of the Co-Editor-in-Chief of the Craniomaxillofacial Trauma & Reconstruction Open (CMTRO) Journal

The most important tasks are:

- Contribute to the management of the content, style and vision of CMTRO
- Working with the editorial board to craft and implement editorial policies that meet high ethical standards for journal publication
- Contribute to the planning, monitoring and implementation of the strategy for the scientific content and definition of the scientific identity of CMTRO
- Encouraging submission of high-quality articles to CMTRO
- Contribute to editorials, content evaluation and commentaries
- Contribute to the promotion of and advertising in CMTRO with the support of the publisher
- Issuing recommendations on rejections, acceptances, and requests for resubmission, to maintain the high quality of CMTRO while ensuring its interest, readability, and accessibility
- Approving article proofs
- Actively promoting CMTRO at meetings and conferences